

Project Name: The San Isidro Medical Policenter
Client: Ministry of Health of Panama
Distributor: Carmafon S,A
Location: Panama City

Project Overview

This brand-new medical centre is the second biggest main medical centre building of San Miguelito, a district in the Panama City area, with the site serving more than 400,000 inhabitants. The centre was built to replace and upgrade the existing facilities, modernising and improving medical care for its patients.

Type of building and services portfolio:

1 and 2 level medical centre (Health promotion, health prevention, diagnosis and treatment of illness and problems, outpatient surgery, emergency care, diagnostic and treatment support (Laboratory, Pharmacy, Imaging, X-rays, and others), basic and environmental sanitation.

Building size:

8 floors building (6 visible, 2 underground), each floor is approximately 1,300 m2 in size.

Equipment Installed:

The project was to install a complete new addressable fire alarm system comprising of 1 x 4 loop fire alarm control panel with a total of 488 loop devices. 2 x sounder circuits and 3 x remote annunciators.

